

Myracle, Lauren. Shine

When her best friend falls victim to a horrible hate crime, sixteen-year-old Cat sets out to discover the culprits in her backwoods North Carolina town.

Ness, Patrick. A Monster Calls, Inspired by an idea from Siobhan Dowd

Just past midnight, Conor suddenly wakes up to find a monster outside his window. Conor is reluctant to give the monster what he wants: the truth.

Oppel, Kenneth. This Dark Endeavor: The Apprenticeship of Victor Frankenstein

In this prequel to Frankenstein, Victor Frankenstein is on a quest to concoct the Elixir of Life to save his twin's life. How far are he, his friend Henry, and his cousin Elizabeth willing to go?

Revis, Beth. Across the Universe

Amy wakes up from a cryogenic sleep chamber 50 years too early in a failed murder attempt as her spaceship travels to a new planet. Filled with murder and lies, the rest of her trip is sure to be an adventure, if she makes it to her destination.

Riggs, Random. Miss Peregrine's Home for Peculiar Children

When his grandfather is killed, Jacob sets out to find the fantastical home from his stories, where magical kids lived. In the process, Jacob unearths a magical secret and uncovers his true heritage.

Roth, Veronica. Divergent

Beatrice lives in a society of factions where she must choose to remain with her family or set off towards independence and her beliefs. What happens when the unity amongst these factions begins to falter?

Sepetys, Ruta. Between Shades of Gray

In 1941, Lina, her mother, and brother are taken from their Lithuanian home and sent to Siberia. She dreams one day of being united with her father.

Stiefvater, Maggie. The Scorpio Races

Every November, vicious water horses caught from the sea are raced across the treacherous terrain and death is likely. Puck Connolly is racing for her family, Sean Kendrick for his passion, but only one can win.

Zarr, Sara. How to Save a Life

Jill's mother decides to adopt a baby a year after her father died, but Jill distrusts the young pregnant teen mom, Mandy, who is staying with them until the baby's born.

Zevin, Gabrielle. All These Things I've Done

In 2083, water is rationed, paper is rare, and coffee and chocolate are illegal. Anya Balanchine balances a mobster family, ailing grandmother, and forbidden love—until it all comes crashing down.

Teens' Top Ten is a "teen choice" list, where teens nominate and choose their favorite books of the previous year. Readers ages twelve to eighteen can vote online at www.ala.org/yalsa/teentopten in August and September, and the winners will be announced during Teen Read Week in October.

Here is a list of the nominations. Which ones have you read?

Insert Library logo and contact information here

Austen, Catherine. All the Good Children

Max, his sister Ally and their mother return to their home to discover Ally's classmates have been "vaccinated" to be less rowdy, more willing to obey, and be easier to teach. Max's family has a choice, be "vaccinated", flee their home, or stay and fight.

Bick, Ilsa. Ashes

Alex, Tom, and Ellie join forces after an electromagnetic pulse sweeps through the sky, killing most people and destroying all computers, but also turning the people who remain into zombies or super humans.

Cabot, Meg. Abandon

Pierce barely escapes death the first time, so when moving to a new town doesn't solve the problem, she finds herself trying to escape his clutches once again.

Cross, Julie. Tempest

Jackson decides to use his ability of time travel to try to prevent his girlfriend Holly from getting shot, but the future is full of uncertainty and the past is full of betrayal.

Destefano, Lauren. Wither

Experimental genetics ensure that males live only to 25 and females to 20. When Rhine is kidnapped at 16 and sold into marriage, she plots her escape to return to her brother.

Forman, Gayle. Where She Went

In the sequel to If I Stay, Adam takes up the tale of what happened after an accident kills his girlfriend's entire family.

Gaughen, A.C. Scarlet

Will Scarlet is one of Robin Hood's Merry Men, but in fact she is actually a girl. Disguised as a boy to escape her past, she must choose to keep her identity hidden or keep the people of Nottingham safe when an old enemy resurfaces.

Goodman, Alison. Eona: The Last Dragoneye

As the battle for ultimate control over her home draws near, Eona finds herself waging an internal battle that might cause more damage than the war threatening to break out across the kingdom.

Green, John. The Fault in Our Stars

Hazel and August forge a relationship together as they and their kids with cancer support group struggle with the "side-effects of dying" and learn the strength of wishes.

Dessen, Sarah. What Happened to Goodbye?

After her parents divorce, Mclean ends up moving every six months and adopting a new persona each time. With this latest move, Mclean finds herself wanting to stay in one place and just be herself.

Gulledge, Laura Lee. Page by Paige

When Paige Turner and her family move to Brooklyn from rural Virginia, she tries to make sense of her new life through her sketchbook, which exposes her true personality and helps her find herself.

Lu, Marie. Legend

June, a fifteen-year-old military prodigy, is hunting Day, the outlaw she believes is responsible for her brother's death. When the two meet, they discover their government is corrupt.

McEntire, Myra. Hourglass

Emerson Cole sees dead people, but when a consultant from the secretive Hourglass Society tries to cure her, everything changes as the past merges with the present and the organization proves dangerous.

Meyer, Marissa. Cinder

A futuristic retelling of Cinderella, cyborg Cinder lives with her cruel stepmother and two stepsisters. Upon meeting Prince Kai, Cinder must find the truths of her past, which may help save the future.

More books on the back

